

BSI PAS 55 has been an International success story since its introduction in 2004. It is increasingly recognized as generic definition of good practice in the life cycle of optimized management of physical assets.

BSI PAS 55 comprises two parts, it offers a 28 point checklist of requirements for an effective asset management system with defined terms and practical guidance on implementing the standard.

